

Headline News: Around the Conference

Concord: Meet Jesus at the County Fair

Many people attended the Cabarrus County Fair mid-September to experience the food, rides and entertainment. However many of them did not expect an encounter with Jesus. It was the most popular booth at the fair the entire week with more than 3000 pieces of literature given away!

Albemarle: Debt Free!

The banks told them it would take until 2026 to pay off their mortgage, but God had other plans. Through faith, prayer, and giving, the Albemarle church held a mortgage burning ceremony in September. It took them seven years to pay their debt in full!

Columbia: Racing to the Kingdom

Can you imagine preaching from a flatbed trailer in the middle of a cow pasture, with a Dale Earnhardt look-a-like, while giving out 1,000 books to strangers? Pastor John Earnhardt participated in this unusual witnessing through Raceway Ministries at the races in Bristol, TN.

Youth Department: Courage to Stand in 2009

The camporee in Oshkosh, WI was an experience our pathfinders will never forget! They met young people from all over the world and learned what it means to stand for Christ through the story of Esther. There were 518 decisions to be baptized and 58 of them came from the Southern Union.
