

Adventist

EDUCATION

My husband had lost the job where he worked for eight years, which was very difficult for us. It came to the point where we were getting ready to sell our house and give away our pets. We found ourselves forced to make some very big changes in our lifestyle.

One particularly hard day, a woman from my neighborhood knocked on my door. She had heard I homeschooled my children and was wanting to do the same with her boys. She offered to hire me to come work with her. I could not believe God had sent someone to knock on our door and give me work.

Because of this opportunity, my boys were able to begin attending Adventist Christian Academy in Raleigh, NC. My oldest son LOVES his school! After his first week he was disappointed when the weekend came and he didn't have school. Ms. Eberhart prays with the students, teachers and parents. She is the kindest principal I've ever met—a very Christ-like spirit. I hope both of my boys can continue their schooling with ACA. So many of the teachers and caring parents give all of their free time toward making the school the best it can be for the kids.

—Heather Chase

Carolina YOUTH

IMAGINE A TIME when young people no longer attend church, are bored with religion and begin leaving behind the beliefs of their parents.

IMAGINE A TIME when entertainment comes in a box or electronic gadget, instead of from the awe-inspiring nature God created.

IMAGINE A TIME when Adventist education is suffering for lack of enrollment, leaving our children with no option but a public education, devoid of God.

Could that time be near? Sadly, in some cases, it is already here.

This is why the Carolina Youth offering exists:

- To generate a renewed interest in God's love through church programs like Pathfinders and Adventurers.
- To create an appreciation for nature and God's majesty through summer camp at Nosoca Pines Ranch.
- To teach Godly principles through Christ-centered, high-quality Adventist Christian education.

We love our young people! Give generously to the Carolina Youth offering today. Your gift will live for eternity.

GENEROUS LIVING

ALL OF ME IN RESPONSE TO ALL OF HIM