

Welcome to Camp Meeting 2025

Leslie Louis President

Gary Moyer VP for Administration Executive Secretary

Rick Russell VP for Finance/

Welcome back, friends and family, to the hallowed grounds of our beautiful camp meeting here at Lake Junaluska.

It's hard to believe six months have passed since Hurricane Helene swept through Western North Carolina, causing over $1 million in damage on this property alone. Thanks to the generous support of so many, it has been restored from the devastation last fall. Helene's fury was a stark reminder of the enemy's intent to destroy. But today, we can sing the mighty power of God as we walk this ground and gaze at its beauty! We give glory to God for the privilege of returning to this serene setting, seeking to commune with our Savior and honor Him as Lord of our lives.

How fitting, then, that we've chosen Hope Beyond Tomorrow as the theme for our 2025 camp meeting. As we reflect on the storm of the century that impacted this part of God's vineyard, I believe God is calling us to be a prepared people—ready for the final crisis soon to break upon this world.

In every song that is sung, in every prayer uplifted, and in every message spoken, my prayer is that Jesus will appeal to your heart and mine to make a daily, total, and absolute commitment to Him.

Our hope beyond tomorrow is assured, as long as we are anchored in His Word and filled with His love. Then, we will not be shaken or moved by any devilish, destructive scheme, and our eyes will remain fixed on our Savior.

In Christian love.

Leslie D. Louis President. Carolina Conference

Speakers

FRIDAY EVENING-SABBATH MORNING

Shawn Boonstra, a native of British Columbia, is the speaker/director for the Voice of Prophecy. He hosts Authentic, a weekly broadcast exploring life's big questions through history and Scripture. Known for global evangelistic meetings like Revelation Speaks Peace, he equips churches through initiatives such as the Discover Bible School and Discovering Revelation. His ministry spans continents, including outreach in Myanmar, the Arctic, and India. Before joining Voice of Prophecy in 2013, he served as associate ministerial director at the North American Division, Shawn lives in Loveland, Colorado, and enjoys the outdoors with his wife, Jean.

Sunday-Thursday Evening

Jerry Page is the recently retired ministerial secretary for the General Conference. He is passionate about Jesus and sharing what our Lord can do when we live in an authentic, dynamic experience with Him. He and his wife, Janet, have been traveling the world teaching and speaking to leaders and many groups in very diverse settings. He has been a pastor and departmental director in Illinois and Colorado, and then president of the Pennsylvania and Central California conferences in North America. They have two grown sons, two amazing daughters-in-law and six wonderful grandchildren.

Monday-Friday, 11:00 a.m.

Roy E. Gane is professor of Hebrew Bible and Ancient Near Eastern Languages at the Theological Seminary at Andrews University, where he has served since 1994. He earned his M.A. and Ph.D. in biblical Hebrew from the University of California, Berkeley, and served as president of the Adventist Theological Society (2009–10). Gane has published extensively in scholarly journals and authored several books, including Leviticus, Numbers (NIV Application Commentary), Old Testament Law for Christians, and The Sanctuary and Salvation. He was also the primary translator for Leviticus in the Common English Bible.

Monday-Friday 8:30 a.m.

Carolina Pastors:

Beth Grissom, Kathy Russell, Casey Vaughn-Claus, Erin Miller, and Cris Dutra

Seminars, 9:30 a.m.

FAMILY MINISTRIES

César De León is an ordained minister and licensed Marriage and Family Therapist in California. He holds degrees from Andrews, Loma Linda, and Fuller Theological Seminary. He has served as pastor, Ministerial and Evangelism Director, and vice president for Hispanic Ministries. He and his wife, Carolann De León, now direct Family Ministries for the North American Division. Carolann previously served as associate director for Ministerial, Family Life, and Hispanic Ministries at the North Pacific Union. The De Leóns are passionate about equipping families for Christ-centered relationships. They have two adult sons, Zac and Jonathan.

EVANGELISM

Richie Halversen is the Director of Church Growth and Revitalization for the Southern Union, where he equips church revitalizers and lay leaders to maximize their impact in evangelism and church renewal. He has been married to his wife, Britney, for 25 years. They have four children: Kaleb, Hayley, Tristen, and Taylor. The Halversens live in the Chattanooga area and enjoy spending time together hiking, disc golfing, and playing games.

MEN'S MINISTRY

Pastor Tony LaPorte currently serves as the pastor of the Charleston Adventist Church in South Carolina and as the Men's Ministries Director for the Carolina Conference. He and his wife, Nereida, have been happily married for 38 years and are the proud parents of four sons. His greatest passion is sharing the love of Jesus with every soul he encounters.

Seminars, 2:00 p.m. Disaster Relief: Before & After___

Jim & Becky Ingersoll Jim and Becky Ingersoll have served together in Adventist education for 43 years and now lead the 2Serve Disaster Training & Response Team. They provide training for both disaster response and CERT (Community Emergency Response Team) programs. In their seminar this week, they will teach practical strategies for disaster preparedness and community survival in the aftermath of a crisis. Attendees will learn how to safely provide the greatest help to the greatest number of people until professional first responders are able to arrive.

GOD'S RELATIONAL GRACE

Mike Ortel retired for the third time on January 1, 2025, after pastoring two churches in Arizona. He previously served as president of the Northern New England Conference and later as executive secretary and ministerial director for the Arizona Conference. Over his decades of service, he has been a pastor, department director, and administrator. He also chaired the board of Parkview Adventist Medical Center for ten years. Mike is deeply engaged in community outreach and currently serves as chaplain for the Paradise Valley Police Department. He recently authored Max the Cat: The Seven A's of Healthy Relationships.

APOLOGETICS

Brad Cauley, originally from South Carolina, is married to Nellie and father to Alexandra and Bradford, both students at Pine Tree Academy in Freeport, Maine. He holds a B.A. in Theology from Southern Adventist University, and an M.Div. and D.Min. from Andrews University. Brad is the author of Steps to a Vibrant Church and ReGenerate! A Strategy to Revitalize Seventh-day Adventist Churches. His upcoming book, In God I Trust? Examining Evidence for a Faith Relationship, will be published later this year.

Prayer Ministry

Rick and Cindy Mercer currently serve a growing, multi-generational church and K–12 academy in Tulsa, Oklahoma, where they present Christ-centered messages and seminars. Cindy, a registered nurse for 31 years, now serves as the Prayer and Women's Ministries Director for the Oklahoma Conference and is the author of Pray Big, which shares their personal story of restoration. From 2014 to 2018, they ministered in the Carolina Conference. Their passion is helping people of all ages develop a lifestyle of prayer, and their journey of finding "purpose in their pain" continues to inspire their ministry. The Mercers are regularly invited to speak at prayer weekends, camp meetings, youth events, and retreats as they follow God's call to serve.

Seminars, 4:00 p.m.

SINGLES MINISTRY

Ricardo Carr holds a Master's in Social Work from the University of the West Indies and a Master of Divinity from Andrews University. While in Jamaica, he served in a variety of roles, including teacher, counselor, dean, adjunct professor, and board chairman. He also led hundreds of students in campus ministry as president of Advent Fellowship. After moving to the U.S. in 2011, he entered full-time pastoral ministry and later completed clinical pastoral education. He now provides spiritual care for terminally ill patients and their families. Pastor Carr is also the founder of Love Above Everything Christian Singles Ministry, which supports and uplifts single adults. He enjoys sports, writing, and helping people experience the love of Jesus.

GENEROUS LIVING

Rudy and Janet Salazar are a passionate husband-and-wife team dedicated to inspiring others in both faith and finances. Rudy serves as associate director for Stewardship Ministries at the North American Division and holds a doctoral degree from Andrews University. He has served as a pastor and stewardship leader in several conferences. Janet holds a Master of Arts in Teaching from La Sierra University and shares practical tools for connecting with God through her speaking and writing ministry. Together, the Salazars encourage individuals and families to grow spiritually and live with purpose.

HEALTH MINISTRIES

Roman Pawlak is a professor of nutrition at East Carolina University in North Carolina. He holds a doctorate in nutrition from the University of Southern Mississippi and an M.S. in human nutrition from Andrews University. A registered dietitian nutritionist, he is a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and its Vegetarian Nutrition Dietetic Practice Group. With expertise in vegan and vegetarian nutrition, he has published around 50 peer-reviewed articles, several books, and numerous popular articles, and has lectured on five continents. He lives with his wife, Jinsun, and their two dogs.

YOUNG ADULTS

Dustin Serns believes young adults are Jesus' secret weapon in His mission. He helps them embrace their identity, discover their purpose, and use their passions for Christ. He has seen God work through young adults to activate 30 to revive an aging church, mobilize 20 to plant a missional church in Tacoma, Washington, empower 10 to launch an Adventist nature school, and equip five young professionals to lead new church plants in the Washington Conference. Dustin's passion is multiplying young leaders for the gospel. His greatest joy is life with his wife, Caitlin, and their children, Quinn (9) and Joel (6).

Musical Guest

Matt & Josie Minikus are singer-songwriters based in Michigan. Since launching their full-time music ministry in 2010, they have toured extensively throughout North America, Europe, and Australia. Their music features a reverent, contemporary blend of vocals, guitar, piano, and a variety of other instruments. Through both music and storytelling, they seek to offer listeners a glimpse into the deep and incomprehensible love of God—a love they have personally experienced and continue to be drawn by.

MG=MISSION GROUP

It Starts with One.

One invitation. One message of hope. One life changed forever. That's the heart of Carolina Evangelism. For over three decades, God has used this initiative to spark revival across the Carolinas—turning small conversations into powerful testimonies and everyday people into bold witnesses for Christ.

Each year, your faithful giving fuels this mission. It supports church plants, Bible studies, outreach events, and evangelistic campaigns that bring the Good News to those still searching. Because of your generosity, lives are being transformed and the work continues.

This is your invitation to keep the momentum going. To give, not out of obligation, but with joy. To be part of something eternal.

Let's keep building God's kingdom one soul at a time.

To see stories of how your gifts are making a difference, visit our app or tune in on YouTube, Apple TV, or Roku.

General Information

BOOTH DISPLAYS: Come and see the informative and beautiful booths at Harrell Center, Room 201.

CAMP MEETING CHOIR: If you love singing, join the Camp Meeting choir and attend rehearsals from Tues. to Thurs., 2:00-3:30 p.m. and Fri. 2:00-4:00 in the choir room behind Stuart Auditorium. The choir will perform on Sabbath morning (second service) and Sabbath evening. Contact Kathy Russell at 704-641-1167 with questions.

CAROLINA PRISON MINISTRY: Discover how you can make a difference through prison ministry. Join us Sabbath afternoon from 2:00–3:30 p.m. at the Terrace Hotel, Room 316, for an inspiring session on reaching hearts behind bars.

CHILDCARE PROVIDED: Childcare will be available in Harrell Center. Room 105, for children of those attending the young adult meetings.

EXERCISE: Take advantage of the beautiful trail around Lake Junaluska between meetings. Don't miss the Run4Life 5K and 1 Mile Fun Run on Friday!

RUN4LIFE 5K/FUN RUN: Start preparing now for the 5K and 1-mile Fun Run, which will take place on Friday at 8:00 a.m. at the Open Air Gym. There will be prizes for winners in various age categories. See page 7 for details.

HEADSETS FOR HEARING IMPAIRED: Headsets for the hearing impaired are available in limited supply at the information desk in Stuart Auditorium, so be sure to get one early if you'll need it for the week.

LAKE JUNALUSKA CAMP MEETING 2026: Mark your calendars for next year's Camp Meeting, happening May 26–30. Featured speakers include Mark Finley, Dan Serns, Leslie Louis, and Scott Griswold, with music by special guest Steve Darmody. The week's theme: "We Shall Behold Him."

LITERATURE EVANGELISM TRAINING: All current and aspiring LEs are invited to a training session on Friday, May 30, from 9:00 a.m. to noon in Room 316 of the Terrace Hotel. For more information, stop by their booth in the Harrell Center, open Monday-Friday, 9:00 a.m.-8:00 p.m.

MEDICAL SERVICES: There is no first aid station on the grounds. For full service hospital and emergency room care, visit Haywood Regional Medical Center at 262 Leroy George Dr., Clyde, NC, 28721, or visit the Urgent Care Waynesville at 556 Hazelwood Ave., Waynesville, NC, 28786, or MedWest Urgent Care Canton at 55 Buckeye Cove Rd., Canton, NC. CVS Minute Clinic in Waynesville is also available. If emergency transportation is required, contact the Welcome Center front desk.

MESSAGES: During Camp Meeting, only emergency messages will be shown on the screen in Stuart Auditorium. Routine messages will be posted either at the information booth at the rear of Stuart Auditorium or at the Terrace Hotel front desk.

MOBILE PHONES: Please turn off or put your mobile phones on silent before entering any of the meetings or seminars.

OVERFLOW SEATING: If Stuart Auditorium is full, the doors will be closed (per fire marshal) and overflow will be directed to Harrell Center, room 202, Friday Evening and Sabbath.

PARKING: Please note that parking on the grass is strictly prohibited. Additionally, do not park along the road, blocking cottages and road access. Handicapped parking spaces are available, but you must display a placard.

RECORDINGS: You can download audio recordings of the speakers and seminars (with a 24-hour delay) from www.carolinasda.org. After Camp Meeting, the audio files will be available on our Carolina Conference podcast channel, which can be found on iTunes, Google Play, and Stitcher. You can also watch a live stream of camp meeting (Stuart Auditorium meetings only) on our website.

ROLLER BLADES/BIKES/SCOOTERS: Skateboards, rollerblades, bikes, and scooters are not permitted on sidewalks or other pedestrian areas. Thank you for helping us keep everyone safe.
