

Jeff Horn
Undertreasurer

Biographical Statement for Jeff Horn:

Jeff Horn serves as the Undertreasurer of the Carolina Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

Originally from Midland, Michigan, Jeff is a graduate of Great Lakes Adventist Academy (2006). He completed his BBA in Accounting at Andrews University in 2010 and went on to earn a Master of Science in Accounting from Michigan State University in 2012. He is also a Certified Public Accountant (CPA).

Jeff spent nearly a decade working in corporate finance before transitioning to full-time denominational service in 2021. Prior to joining the Carolina Conference in 2024, he served as Associate Treasurer for the Kentucky-Tennessee Conference. Jeff considers it a blessing to unite his financial expertise with his calling to support the mission and ministries of the Church.

He is currently pursuing a Master of Ministry at Southern Adventist University, and values opportunities to mentor, teach, and encourage others in both practical stewardship and spiritual growth.

Jeff and his wife, Femke, were married in 2014 and have two children, Julian and Elena. He enjoys reading, exercise, and spending time with his family—especially outdoors, exploring God’s creation together.

Jeff desires to honor Christ through sound financial stewardship, supportive leadership, and a spirit of service to the churches, schools, and members of the Carolina Conference.
